MAY BE LEPROSY

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)
SILVER CITY, N. M., Sept. 16.— Steps today by county health officials to isolate two men examined yesterday under the selective draft disclosed that the men, both natives of old Mexico, were suffering from a malady believed to be leprosy. One was employed in a mine at Santa Rita, N. M., and one at a Lordsburg, N. M. mine. One case was well advanced, according to examiners for the draft board. Neither man was prevented from working, however, or knew he was seriously ill.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB PLANS CLEAN UP DAY

Inviting their husbands to join them the members of the Neighborhood club of the south side have planned a clean up day before the formal opening of the club season. The men and women will gather at the Neighborhood house, roll up their sleeves and prepare for a good day's work. The club house will be thoroughly gone over and the grounds will be put in shape. At noon a picnic luncheon will be served.

The clean up program was arranged for Wednesday but owing to the number of club members whose sons are leaving that day with the second contingent for Fort Riley, the date has been advanced until Friday.

The home economics and the civic improvement departments of the club are co-operating in the arrangements.

WHITE AUTOS WIN

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire) CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 16.—The White Autos, Cleveland class AA amateur champions, defeated the Rail Lights, Toledo champs, twice in this afternoon in the second round of elimination series for the national baseball title. The scores were 3 to 2 and 14 to 2. The first game went ten innings.
The Toledo team protested the games on the ground that Pitcher Wilbur Schardt, who worked in all the contests, is still the property of the St. Louis City team of the Western League and not a free agent, as he claims.

GRATHOUSE FINDS VERDICT OF GUILTY AT END OF JOYRIDE

A series of joyrides that culminated in the arrest of H. B. Grathouse on a charge of obtaining property on a bu-gus check, had additional development yesterday when a jury in Judge Stanford's court found him guilty of the charge on which he was tried. He will be sentenced Thursday morning.

Owing to the peculiar features of the case it attracted considerable notice last June when Grathouse was given his preliminary examination in Justice De Souza's court. It was clearly shown at the time that after purchasing a big seven-passenger Hudson car from Cal Messner, Grathouse made an attempt to escape. He drove about in the car accompanied by his men and women friends, without apparent thought that Messner would cause his arrest for passing a bogus check of $500 as first payment on the car.

Grathouse testified yesterday in his defense stating that he believed he had sufficient funds in the Central bank to cover the check. He said that the draft that he thought in the bank to protect the check had been turned down without his knowledge.

JEWISH NEW YEAR SERVICE CONCLUDED

The services of the Jewish New Year which began Sunday night were concluded with exercises at the K. of P. hall yesterday. They were conducted in Hebrew by Samuel Steinberg. There were also readings by Harry Friedman from the twenty-first chapter of Genesis and the twenty-ninth of Numbers. Mr. Friedman also delivered an oration from the book of Micah where the prophet speaks of the remnants of the house of Jacob, their goodness and their short-comings.

Translations of various works bearing upon the holiday were read by R.
E. Marks, among them the famous address of Rabbi Moses. He also gave an explanation of the Rame Horn.
The Day of Atonement will be celebrated, beginning on the evening of September 25 and that will shortly be followed by the Harvest holidays.

So many have asked about it—that here is what it means—

Hanny's prices and values are so proportion-money for the customer so as to "conserve" the customer for Hanny's.

What we are after is the "regular" customer and most of ours do
"repeat." Yours truly,

R. L. White and family left yesterday for a two weeks' visit at Rosevelt. L. W. Miller will have a big sale northwest of town Wednesday. Miss Ida West from Deming, New Mexico, who is spending the winter in Phoenix, came out for a visit with Mrs. Price Quessensbury Saturday. F. Weigold returned home yesterday he and Mrs.
Weigold have been in Indianapolis this summer where Mrs. Weigold was under treatment with a specialist for a cancer which was quite successful. They are glad to be home. Mrs. O. S.
Bainbridge and daughter came home yesterday from their vacation on the coast.

Interest is growing in band boys' meetings Thursday nights. The boys meet and practice and have social time. There will be a meeting of the "council Monday at the town hall they expect to have the plans for the sewer system from Mr. Holmquist the engineer at the meeting. Mrs. R. E. Bradshaw returned Friday from Coronado beach where she has spent the last six weeks at Hotel Coronado. Cards received from the Wm. Walters party en route to Prescott for a two weeks' vacation say they are having a fine time. Mr. Walters is the cook and no one dares to make a kick for fear he will throw up the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Little, A. B.
Little and Dewey Schwartz returned from their hunting trip in the mountains yesterday. They had a splendid trip. Mr. A. B. Little had to return to straighten up his business and be ready to leave with the boys on the 19th. The cloudburst in the Four Peaks mountains Thursday brought Cave creek down. The Arizona canal carried all but a small overflow on the north side of the canal. Rev. and Mrs.
Northrup and Mrs. Northrup's mother, Mrs. Hoover, returned yesterday from their vacation trip. They went first to Oregon to visit relatives, returning to California to finish up at the beaches. They waited over to hear a few of Billy Sunday's sermons which were great they like all the returning vacationists are glad to be home again.
